A CARD.
A clergyman, while residing in South Amherica as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous weaknoss, early decay, diseases of the urinary and sexual organs and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the receipt for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it free of charge. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D Bible House, New York City. 273-2m

INDEPENDENT.

MERRY'S MUSEUM for January, with an attractive table of contents, is received The Publisher gives as a premium, for every new subscriber, a patent self binder; so that for the small sum of $1,50, one can obtain an elegantly bound volume of nearly six hundred pages of entertaining reading, edited by Louisa M Alcott, one of the most charming and brilliant writers for boys and girls that our country has hitherto produced.

Parents and friends of young people can make no more acceptable present than a year's subscription to Merry's Museum, which will cause the boys and girls to think with pleasure of their benefactors as surely as every month comes round.

A single specimen number will be sent to any address, on the receipt of two three cent stamps. Address, Horace B Fuller, Publisher, 14 Bromfield st., Boston.

THE INDEPENDENT.—This remarkable paper has recently been enlarged and otherwise greatly improved, and now exhibits fine literary taste, and a most superb typographical appearance. It is the giant of American religious weeklies, strikes the notes of freedom with a master hand, makes no apologies for in church or state, and shapes the conduct of eminent statesmen in the councils of the nation. Its influence for good is acknowledged by all its friends and feared by all its enemies.

Long may it wave. Terms, $2,50 per year, and cheap at that. Special inducements to clubs. It is the N Y Independent.

Mr J W Ellis, well known throughout the west as the energetic and highly successful president of the first national bank of Cincinnati, has been elected one of the directors of the National life insurance company of the United States of America, which is advertisted in our columns. Mr. Ellis' high reputation as a financier and business man, will add to the popularity—already great—of this new enterprise in the west.

Traitors' Christmas Gift.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24, 1868:

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has heretofore set forth several proclamations, offered amnesty and pardon to persons who had been, or were concerned in the late rebellion against the lawful authority of the United States, which proclamations were severally issued on the 8th day of December, 1863; on the 26th day of March, 1864; on the 29th of May, 1865; on the 7th day of September, 1867, and on the 4th of July of the present year; and

WHEREAS, The authority of the federal government having been established in all the states and territories with in the jurisdiction of the United States, it is believed that such presidential reservations and exceptions as at the dates of said several proclamations, were deemed, necessary and proper, may be wisely and justly relinquished, and that an universal amnesty and pardon for the participation in said rebellion, extended to all who have borne any part therein, will tend to secure permanent peace, order and prosperity throughout the land, and to renew and fully restore confidence and fraternal feeling among the whole people, and their respect for, and attachment to the national government—designed by its patriotic founders for the general good;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the constitution and in the name of the sovereign people of the United States, do hereby proclaim and delare, unconditionally, and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion a full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war; with the restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities, under the constitution and the laws, which have been made in pursuance thereof

In testimony whereof I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the twenty-fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixty eight, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety third.

The Old Man's Story

"I took the solemn pledge," said an old man, "at the foot of the gallows, when I saw a young man hung. The sheriff took out his watch, and said, 'If you have any thing to say speak now, for you have only five minutes to live.' The young man burst into tears and said: I have to die. I had only one little brother; he had beautiful blue eyes and flaxen hair, and I loved him. But one day I got drunk, and coming home found him gathering berries in the garden; and became angry without a cause, and killed him with one blow with a rake. Whisky has done it—it has ruined me. I have but one more word to say—never! never! touch any thing that can intoxicate.

State Temperance Convention.

In view of the fact which every friend of temperance, and every Christian and lover of his country feels to be true that, the demoralizing influence strong drink is widely spread, and in many places gaining ground: and that the liquor dealers and their minions are making continual and persistent efforts to extend their power and influence, until, by the monetary power they wield, they threaten not only to demoralize the individual citizen, fill our land with pauperism and crime, but to control our legislative bodies, and sap the foundations of our free and Christian institutions. And feeling that the time has now come when all churches, all temperance organizations, and all lovers of God and humanity should unite upon a common basis, and comb ue their forces into a permanent organization for aggressive movement on the enemy's strongholds; and believing, too, that it is our duty to impress upon every citizen the duty of carrying his temperance principles to the ballot box, we, the executive commitee of the Ohio State Temperance Alliance would invite all temperance societies in the state to elect delegates to meet, with the delegates of our branches, in a union convention at Columbus on the 13th and 14th of January, 1869.

We especially desire the northern parts of the state, and those portions which our agents have not yet been able to reach, to form branches of alliances, and to send delegates, that we may secure their advice and co-operation. Arrangements will be made with railroads to carry delegates at reduced rates. Let every Division of the Sons of Temperance, every Lodge of Good Templars, every Temple of Honor, and every temperance society, send at least one delegate. All our churches, Sabbath schools, and every moral and Christian organization are invited to send delegates, and participate in our deliberations. All papers in the State favorable to the cause are respectfully requested to publish this call.

A New England Catholic Priest.

BY JAMES PARTON.

I witnessed a Catholic service, a summer or two since, in the very heart of New England, which was a chapter of Charles O'Malley come to life.—a bit of old Ireland transferred bodily to the New World. Toward nine o'clock on Sunday morning the hour appointed for the semi-monthly mass, the people gathered about the gate under the trees, while the ruddy and robust priest stood at the church door, accosting those who entered with a loud heartiness that made every word he uttered audible to the people kneeling within. He was a jovial and sympathetic soul who could (and did) laugh with the merry and grieve with the sad; but it was evident that laughter came far more natural to him than crying. When he had concluded, at 9.15, a boisterous and most jovial conversation with Mrs O'Flynn at the door, every word of which was heard by every member of the waiting congregation, he entered the church, and proceeded to the altar, before which he knelt, holding his straw hat in his hand. His prayer ended, he went into a small curtained alcove at the side, where his priestly robes were hanging. Without taking the trouble to let the curtains fall, he took off his coat, in view of the whole assembly, and put on part of his ecclesiastical garments, unassisted by his only acolyte,—a little boy in the usual costume who stood by. He then went again to the altar, and arranged the various objects for the coming ceremonial; after which he stepped aside and completed the robing—not even going into the alcove, but standing outside, and reaching in for the different articles. He might have spared the congregation the pain of seeing his struggles to tie his strings behind him; but no, he chose to perform the whole without help and without disguise. When all was ready, he said mass with perfect propriety, and with unusual manifestations of feeling. But the sermon, if sermon it could be called, was absolutely comic, and much of it was intended to be so. There had been a fair recently for the re-decoration of the altar; and in the first part of his discourse the gratified pastor read a list of the contributors, with comments, in something like the style following:

"Mrs McDowd, $13,50; and very well done too, considering they had nothing but cake upon their table,—no not so much as an apple. John Haggerty, $2,70, and indade he's only a boy, a mere lad,—and a good boy he is. Mrs O'Sullivan, $37,98; yes, and $27,42 before. Ah! but that was doing well,—that was wonderful, considering what she had to contend with. Mrs O'Donahu, $7,00; and every cent of it got by selling a ten-cent picture. Very well done of you, Mrs O'Donahu! Peter O'Brien, $18; good for you, Peter, and I thank you in my own name and in the name of the congregation. Total, $489,57. Nearly five hundred dollars! It's really astonishing! And how much of it, my children (this he said with a wink and a grin that excited general laughter); and how much of it do you think your priest will kape for himself? Not much, I'm thinking. No indeed. Why should I kape? What do I want with it? I have enough to eat, drink, and wear, and what more does a priest want? I have no ambition for money,—not I; and you know it well. You know that the whole of this money will be spent upon the altar of God; and we shall spend it with the greatest economy. Not Brussels carpet, of course. That would cost four or five dollars a yard. Good ingrain will do well enough for us at present, and last long enough too; for can't it be turned? You know it can. Twenty years from now, when we are all dead and gone, they'll be turning and turning it, and holding it up to the light, and saying I wonder who laid down this ould carpet? In all my life I never saw such an altar as this is in a church of this size, (turning to the altar, and surveying it with an indescribably funny attempt to look contemptuous),—so mane so very mane! I tell you, if I had been here when this altar was made, I'd have wheeled the man out of church pretty quick. (These last words were accompanied with the appropriate gesture, expressive of taking the delinquent carpenter by the back of the neck, and propelling him thereby down the aisle). But what shall I say of those who have not given to this fair? Ah! I tell you, when the decorations are all done, and you come here to mass on Sunday mornings, and see God's house and the sanctuary where he dwells all adorned as it should be with the gifts of the faithful, and when you think that you gave not one cent toward it, I tell you you'll blush if there's a blush in you."

After proceding in this tone for twenty minutes, during which he laughed heartily himself, and made the people laugh outright, he changed to another topic, which he handled in a style well adapted to accomplish the object intended. He said he had heard that some of the hotel girls had been swearing and quarelling a good deal that summer. "Ah," he continued, "I was sorry to hear it! The idea of ladies swearing! How wrong, how mean, how contemptible, how nasty, how unchristian! Don't you suppose that the ladies and gentlemen at the hotel have heard how many protestants are coming into the bosom of the Catholic church? Don't you suppose they watch you? They know you're Catholics, and don't you suppose they'll be judging of Catholics by you? And, besides, who would marry a swearing lady? Tell me that! The most abandoned blackguard that walks the street would'nt marry a girl that he had heard swear, do you think I'd marry her? Hey? do you think I would! By no manes! And I wish to God I had spoken about this before; for now the season is almost over, and many of the protestant people have gone home, and very likely are talking about it now in New York and Boston You know what they'll say. If that's the way catholic ladies behave, you don't catch me turning catholic."

At the conclusion of his discourse he took up the collection himself, saying as he left each pew, "Thank you," in a strong, hearty tone of voice; and if any one took a little extra trouble to reach over, or put into the box something more than the usual copper coin, he bowed and said, "I thank you very much, madam—very much indeed." He was a strange mixture of the father and the ecclesiastic, of the good fellow and the gentleman.

There is in the United States some $450,000,000 of gold coin and between $30,000, and 40,000,000 of silver coin, not a dollar or a dime of which is now in circulation as money. Would such a policy on the part of congress as will tend to add this sum—near $500,000,000—to the circulating medium have the effect of depressing the money market? Will such a policy make money tight, stringent, or any thing of that kind? Will some Pendletonian or other advocate of an irredeemable paper currency answer?

Constitutional Amendment—YES.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE.—Late accounts from Virginia—old Virginia—state that the political leaders are in favor of equal suffrage, that is, giving negroes the privilege of voting. That is a piece of good news. One reason for this conree, probably, is, that all the rebels are manumitted by A Johnson—but no matter what prompts them to this course, it is right, and indicates progress in an important political measure, even among the chivalry of the Old Dominion. The mother of presidents may yet set an exeample which it would be well for Ohio to follows, that is, in treating all her children, white and black, as political equals. The same reasons operate here that do in Virginia to do justice. All the rebels and traitors of Ohio are voters, so far as we know, just as they are in Virginia; and to balance that the Virginians are willing to give their hundreds of thousands of black men the privilege of voting. Ohio ought to be as liberal and allow a few tens of thousands of the same class a vote.

FREE GRACE.—The last number of that able religious paper The Advance, of Chicago, well characterizes Johnson's recent proclamation of pardon to the rebels as "free grace extraordinary." The statement is emphatically true. Free grace among theologians of the orthodox schools, implies that those who expect its favors or blessings, must show some indications of repentance; but here Johnson comes along and grants a political pardon more all embracing, if possible, than the broadest guage Universalism would favor any class of moral or religious sinners with, while none of these traitors show the least sign of repentance. His pardon may affect these traitors in some respects, but in a moral, just sense it will have no more influence than a poodle barking at the moon. It dont sanctify treason in the eyes of the mass of the American people.

CONVENTIONS.—The colored men of Pennsylvania held a convention at Pittsburgh, last week, the object of which was to promote their political interests by securing the same priviliges to vote as white men enjoy. The convention is reported to have been well attended, and men of superior ability were present to participate in the proceedings.

A national convention of a similar character is to be held at Washington city in a short time. It is anticipated that this convention will be numerously attended, and that its spirit and deliberations will exert a favorable influence upon the political prospects of this people. Equal political rights is all they ask—are people of our color too cowardly to aid them to this position? for it must be cowardice that fosters such an aristocratic feeling.

AMNESTY.—The traitors' Christmas gift signed A Johnson appears on first page. This is one of his efforts to make treason look odious—but his inconsistency looks odious-er. Many good people are shocked at the document, but to us it presents a most complete fitness of things. The action of the courts on the question of punishing traitors was coming to be a mere mockery, and if left to them the farce of going through a series of trials, which bid fair to last for years, would be but adding unlimited expense to the people with nothing to compensate but any amount of disgrace. Johnson in thus making a scapegoat of himself by relieving his friends, has taken the responsibility from the republicans, and as he has no political reputation to lose, has added the Christian virtue of forgiveness to those he formerly wanted hung. Efforts are said to be making by parties of his political stripe to induce him to release several of those who have been banished for the murder of Mr. Lincoln, and it would not be surprising if he were to do so—rather would it be consistent. And, further it is contemplated to release all the counterfeiters, and such rascals as aided them in making false money, from the penitentiaries which now confine them. If this is so, while he is at this sort of work, why not open all the state and national prison doors and let loose every convict in the land? Were this carried out all the traitors, horse-thieves, burglars, house burners, robbers, murderers, and convicts generally could raise the shout,

The year of jubilee is come
Return, ye guilty rebels, home.

Several thousand votes might be added to the democracy which would enable the party to elect more officers Mr Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation, which freed some four millions of people on the first day of January, 1863, might be feebly imitated by Johnson in letting loose those in bonds, ninety hundredths of whom are not black. Then they would supply the same party with more leaders.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1, 1869.

I have already spoken repeatedly of the Alaska purchase. As far as the result of the investigation has come to light only $26,000 paid to Robert J. Walker, and $3,000 paid to John W. Forney of the Washington Chronicle, have yet been discovered.

Well, that is something—enough, perhaps, to justify my recommendation that an examination should be made. But this may not be all. A gentleman from Georgia—an unsuccessful candidate for supervisorship—called on me several days ago, and made a lengthy statement to the effect that he could prove that two members of congress received severally $250,000 and $150,000; that another high government official and others, received various large sums, and now he says if the investigating committee will be impartial in the matter, and allow the witnesses to testify that he can produce, it will be shown that members of congress and newspapers have been recipients of an ageregate immense sum. I vouch for nothing. I tell it to you as it was told to me. For the truth of the story let us wait and see.

The distinguished senator from California, has resolved, in view of the fact that some of the heads of departments and bureau officers affect not to understand the intent of the framers of the eight-hour law, and of the legislators who voted for it, to endeavor to secure the passage, at an early day, of the bill introduced by him to the senate last week. This bill will enlighten the understanding of some of the obtuse gentlemen connected with the executive branch of the government. It enacts that from and after June 25, 1868, all laborers, workingmen and mechanics in the employ of the government shall receive for a day's labor as provided by law, the full wages and compensation paid for such labor as if ten hours constituted a day's labor. Good for senator Conness. He has ever been the friend of the workingmen of the country, and they have cause to regret that he is to be superceded in the next congress. May they find as staunch a friend in his successor.

By regulations just issued by the office of the internal revenue, assessors are directed to ascertain the quantity of grain used by distillers for their assessment, reported on form 89, by dividing the number of gallons of the mash by the actual number of gallons which this officer may find by the best evidence at his command the distiller has made from a bushel of grain, provided the number of gallons be within 45. After finding the amount of material used in this way, the quantity of spirits which should be accounted for will be determined from the quality of the material, if no more definite means are possessed.

For the week ending Tuesday, the 29th instant, there were 231 patents issued from the patent office, respectively to the following states and foreign countries: New York, 52; Pennsylvania, 33; Ohio, 21; Illinois, 20; Massachusetts, 19; Connecticut, 9; California, 7; Wisconsin, 6; Indiana, 7; Michigan, 6; New Jersey, 5; Rhode Island, 5; Kentucky, 5; Vermont, 5; Iowa, 4; Missouri, 3; Louisiana 3; Virginia, 2; Maryland, 2; Georgia, 2; Maine 1; New Hampshire, 1; Tennessee, 1; Oregon, 1; South Carolina, 1; Nebraska, 1; District of Columbia, 1; England, 3; Canada, 1; France, 2, Italy, 1; Switzerland, 1. This comparison of states inventiveness although modified somewhat modified by the surrounding of those who might be inventors, shows to a great extent where the inventive geniuses most reside, and suggests comment worthy of consideration. Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Texas, are not represented in this issuing of patents for to day; yet, each has a population, varying from 2¼ to 5 times that of Rhode Island, which has 5 patents granted her. Virginia, with a population 1-3 as great as New York, has only two patents, while the latter has 52 patents—one of the results of the institution of slavery, the legitimate cause of southern aristocracy. Mechanical ingenuity is bound sooner or later to do away with the greater part of manual labor, leaving the mind freer to perform its mission intended by the Creator.

The money received at the patent office during the last six months, ending to-day the 21st, has been $302,038.-02. The expenditures for the same time has been $262.543 17. Thus leaving an excess of $39,494 85; remarkably contrasting with the year ending July 1st, 1868, when the expenditures exceeded the receipts by $171. Needless expenditure and too much jobbing in the patent office, has prevented its paying heretofore.

A telegram from Springfield, Massachusetts, states that orders were received at the United States Armory in that place from the war department to pay the workmen only four fifths of the usual rate per day for all work done since August the 20, when the eight hour law went into operation. I trust to hear that there is some mistake about th s although I fear the report is only too true; for it will be remembered that Secretary Schofield, on a former occasion mistook, or affected to mistake, the palpable intent of the large majority of the people's representatives in congress, who enacted this humane law in favor of the workingmen in government employ.

I have heard but one opinion expressed, and that of intense disgust, by democrats in this city—many of them extreme southern men—on the needless venom spit by Senator Buckalew on the memory of Thaddeus Stevens, in the senate on the occasion of the formal announcement of the death of the great Pennsylvania Statesman to the United States Senate. As is well known, Thaddeus Stevens, was often compared to William Pitt, and, like the latter, was often spoken of as the Great Commoner. Among other ill-timed utterances, from a dyspetic stomach, let us hope rather than from a malignant heart, Mr Buckalew said, in contrasting Stevens with Pitt: "But the English Commoner had one great advantage over the American—a greater moral weight; because he was devotedly attached to a lawful spouse, and always observed the proprieties of life." The narrowness of mind displayed by the senator from Pennsylvania will lead no honorable man to regret that Mr Buckalew's seat is soon to be occupied by a gentleman. The manly, liberal, thoughtful, and polished speech of Hon. Fernando Wood presents a favorable contrast to the sarcasm of Mr Buckalew. Indeed, some of the best things said of Thaddeus Stevens were by his political opponents.

The report of Hon Henry D Banard, commissioner of education, will appear very soon, and will present an interesting array of statistics and other information.

Mr Barnard, in the opinion of some gentlemen specially intelligent on the subject of education—gentlemen by the by, who have no ambition to succeed Mr Barnard—is not sufficiently alert to what is being done and thought of, in our own country, in the department of education. He is given credit for extraordinary knowledge; for industry in gathering information concerning all that has been fully developed—all that can be spoken of in figures, or in general terms, as an accomplished fact—but not for forecasting or organizing the future out of the past; or for quick sensibility to, and sympathy with, the efforts and wishes of the earnest workers in our country, whose successes and failures, both, are actually solving the problem of educational improvements, of which Mr Barnard at best does no more than supply the factors. A disparaging comparison is made between him and the late Horace Mann.

A happy New Year to you and your readers. May the "Old Year Out" and the "New Year In" time-posts be to you always happy reminders of the use life has been to you and others in the journey between, and be joyfully hailed signs of your progress towards the good time at last; rather than awakeners of a vain regret for the past, which cannot be recalled J. E.

This company, national in its character offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of premium and new tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of Preillium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of notes, dividends, and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the policy holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the Income producing Policy and Return premium policy. In the former, the policy holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent, of the par of his policy. In the latter, the company agrees to return the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted by the chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, they being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere concoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth, below Coates street.

VERMIFUGE,

The Safest and most Effective

REMEDY for WORMS

That has ever been discovered,

Has been more extensively used by regular practicing physicians than any proprietary medicine which has ever made its appearance in the United States. This alone is a high encomium upon its virtues and speaks the mere emphatically of its merits, when we take it to consideration the extreme caution used by the medical faculty in prescribing any preparation with whose composition they are unacquainted. This celebrated specific for worms is used with the utmost freedom and confidence by gentlemen who have attained eminence in the medical profession. Many of these, throwing aside prejudice, have cheerfully given certificates testifying to its superiority. It is used extensively, for the simple reason that nothing has yet been discovered which can be substituted in substituted in its place, and is given without apprehension, because every one knows its safety. Every person can administer it; and by adhering to the directions which are wrapped around each vial, if worms are secreted within the system it will expel the loathsome intruders and set the sufferer free.

It is important that worms should be eradicated before they have too far debilitated and irritated the stomach, for there is no telling where their ravages may end. They do not confine themselves exclusively to the stomach and bowels, as many suppose, for they have even passed through the coats of the stomach, and been found in the liver and bladder, causing the most distressing diseases which of course cannot be removed so long as the irritating cause is lodged in these organs. Aside from these dangerous consequences, which result from their undisturbed possession of the stomach, they cause an unnatural secretion of mucus, which is constantly in excess. In this mucus they live and multiply; causing it constantly to accumulate, and causing foul stomach, indigestion, and a host of disagreeable attendants, which grow in violence until they either end in a confirmed and incurable chronic affection, or the worms are removed.

In view of these facts it becomes the imperative duty of every parent to watch the health of his child, and to provide himself with this potent specific.—Be careful to observe the initials of the name, and see that you get

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

Has stood the test of seven years before the public; and no preparation for the hair has yet been discovered that will produce the same beneficial results. It is an entirely new scientific discovery, combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the VEGETABLE KINGDOM. It restores GREY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.

It is recommended and used by the First Medical Authority.

The wonderful results produced by our Sicilian Hair Renewer have induced many to manufacture preparations for the Hair, under various names; and, in order to delude the trade and the public to purchase their compounds, they have resorted to falsehood, by claiming they were former partners, or had some connection with our Mr. Hall, and their preparation was similar to ours. Do not be deceived by them. Purchase the original: it has never yet been equalled. Our Treatise on the Hair, with certificates, sent free by mail. See that each bottle has our private Revenue Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

AN INVALUABLE MEDICINE

For the Purifying of the Blood!

J. W. POLAND'S

HUMOR DOCTOR

A Positive Remedy for all kinds of Humors

PARTICULARLY

Erysipelas, Nettle-Rash, Salt Rheum Scrofula, Carbuncles, Boils and Piles.

It is very easy to say of this, or of any other medicine, "It is the very best remedy known." It is not always so easy to prove it. It is, however, exceedingly gratifying to the Proprietor of this medicine, that, while he desires to the public that this is a most wonderful and effective specific for Humors, as stated above, he has abundant proof at hand to sustain his statement.

For sixteen years the HUMOR DOCTOR has been manufactured and sold, and every year has increased the value of its reputation, and the amount of its sales. In New Hampshire, where it originated, no remedy for humors is so highly prized. An eminent physician (now an army surgeon) when practising in New Hampshire, purchased between fifty and sixty gallons of it, during some seven or eight years, and used it in his practice. He has since then ordered it for the hospital where he was stationed. Other physicians have purchased it, and have used it in practice with great success. When the Proprietor lived in New Hampshire, at Goffstown Centre, for the space of thirty or forty miles around, and in Manchester particularly, the HUMOR DOCTOR was well known and highly valued for the numerous and wonderful cures which it effected. Though manufactured in large quantities the supply was frequently exhausted, and purchasers, had to wait for more to be made. In that region some very severe cases of Erysipelas were treated with it—and they were cured! Erysipelas sores, or carbuncles, those ugly, painful ulcers, were entirely removed wherever this medicine was faithfully used. So it was with Scrofula and Salt Rheum. The HUMOR DOCTOR cured them.

For the sake of showing what is thought of it, a few testimonials are here inserted:

Milton Gale, Esq., Boston.

I hereby certify that I was sorely afflicted with Boils for two years, developing themselves upon my hands and other parts of my body. The sufferings which I endured from them were unbearable. Suffice it to say that I faithfully tried several of the most popular humor remedies, but without removing the affliction. At length, by the earnest request of an intimate friend, I was induced to try Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor, and am very happy to attest that all my Boils were removed, and my health was restored by using Dr. Poland's aforesaid medicine. MILTON GALE.

Boston, Jan. 15, 1866.

Mrs. Wheeler, Stoneham, Mass.

I very confidently and earnestly recommend Dr. J. W Poland's Humor Doctor as an excellent remedy for Humors, having been wonderfully benefited by it myself. My own case was a very severe and obstinate one. For more than two years the skin upon the inside of both my hands, and even down on the wrist was constantly cracked and broken up, so that I was unable to use my hands in any kind of work, and was obliged to wear gloves in sewing to avoid getting blood upon my work. The humor which so afflicted me was probably a combination of Erysipelas and Salt Rheum. My general health was quite poor. Soon after I began to use the Humor Doctor I could perceive signs of healing. I continued to take the medicine till I was perfectly cured. My hands are now perfectly free from humors, and, to all appearances my whole system is clear of it, and has been for several months. I used eight bottles before I felt safe to give it up entirely, but they cured me. HARRIET WHEELER.

Stoneham, Mass., July 5, 1856.

Mrs. Porter, Dover, N. H.

DOVER, N. H., July 22, 1855.

Dr. POLAND: I received your letter inquiring as to the effect of your medicine on sea-sickness. I am happy to say that I think it is "the medicine" for that dreadful sickness. I tried various prescriptions, but found none that stilled the stomach and cleared the head like the Humor Doctor. I felt as though I could hardly wait to get ashore, so as to entrust you to introduce it into ship chandlery stores, that it may find its way to those who suffer upon the mighty deep from sea-sickness. If captains who take their families with them, or carry passengers, should try it for once they would never be willing to voyage without it. HARRIET M. PORTER.

Much more might be stated in relation to this medicine, as contained in testimonials, but it is needless. Ask Manchester druggists about it, especially E. W. Burke, at Burr's, business of Mr. Henry Turner, of Bedford, whose wife was cured by the use of Salt Rheum. Ask almost any person in Goffstown, and they will declare its value as a remedy, as used in their own cases or by their friends.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been mantled and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its baleful forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long-continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SETTLE UP.—The advent of a new year brings around the time for making annual settlements, and not a few of our citizens are calling on their friends for the purpose of squaring up. If the credit system must be practiced, it is well to make the time for adjusting accounts as near together as possible. But the cash system would obviate all this trouble, and save much loss and not a few misunderstandings. Why not practice it?

LONGER.—The multitude of new almanacs which have been let loose on community, much as they may differ in their contents in many respects, all concur in circulating the report that our days are becoming longer. It is a welcome report, for these tiny days of little more than nine hours, and often cloudy at that, give us but a trifle of daylight, while the nearly fifteen hours of night give us plenty of darkness.

DR. JOHN SCHERTZER. our worthy postmaster, who has for some time been on the sick list, we are pleased to hear is improving. Dr Barrick, also, is able to ride out since his mishap in breaking a leg some two weeks ago.

From what the Rochester papers say we notice that our esteemed citizen D Worcester, formerly of this place but now residing there, is prospering in business. If energy and enterprise are worthy of reward certainly Mr. W will meet that recompense he so well deserves. It is pleasant to hear of the prosperity of our citizens, even if they are living elsewhere.

To find out the length of the days and nights some authorities tell us to subtract the setting of the sun from 12,00, double the remainder, and that will give the hours and minutes of the day; and likewise subtract the rising of the sum from 12,00, double the remainder, and it will give the hours and minutes of the night. The question is, is the rule correct?

BALLS.—These long evenings have one result in bringing some of our citizens together to spend a few social hours, A pleasant time was had by a party at Tremont house near the close of the parting year, on the evening of the 30th ult, and we notice that tickets are out for another at the American on Friday evening. Much as may be said against dancing it seems that the practice is not stopped.

ACCIDENTS.—Saturday was given over to accidents in this vicinity. A runaway took place on Tremont street, which resulted in a badly smashed buggy, but no person was injured that we hear of. Mrs McGraw and daughter, of this place, were about crossing one of the canal bridges just north of the city, and in backing off the bridge to let a wagon pass their buggy fell over a steep bank. and Mrs M had one of her arms broken by the fall. Mr Fahs, who lives a little west of the city, was going to his mill, which is on the road to Navarre, when his horse ran off, threw him out, kicking him in the face, knocking one eye out, breaking his nose, making his escape with life very narrow.

NEW YEAR'S DAY here was rather quiet on the streets, but in some of the grogshops it was reported lively. Far different from that bitter, cold new year's day which brought in 1864, this was marked for mildness, and wetness. The night before was noisy in some localities in consequence of shooting and loud swearing.

THE velocipede belonging to Mr Ryder has had considerable experience since its arrival, as a variety of persons have been trying to ride it successfully. Some of them are improving, and by perseverence will eventually make it go.

SPOOKS.—It is said that a bewitched house stands tenantless, located not far west of this, in consequence of the reputation it has of being haunted. Rats sometimes turn out to be very good sized ghosts, and it may be that they are playing nocturnal pranks in the house referred to, this frightening humans so they are afraid to live there.

ELECTION.—The H O M Division S T elected the following officers on the 29th ult. Thornton Briggs, W P; John Shepley, W A; Frank Brown, R S; Celia Breed, A R S; J W Ryder, F S; A B Cox, Tr; Annie Creighton, C; Wm Wiseman, A C; E P Seeley, I S; John Wiseman, O S.

By his notices posted about the city the high sheriff of Stark county is to sell a canal boat at this place on the 11th inst. He also officially closed the loud shoe store of J D Pratt, a few days ago. The concern owes somebody who wanted pay. The sheriff sells out the shoe store on the 12th inst.

VENISON.—Ertle & Willenberg had a very fine specimen of venison displayed at their meat market on last Saturday. This firm is supplying our citizens with much excellent provision in this line. It is not often that venison is seen in our market, and when it does appear somebody will soon be after it.

A ZEALOUS, venerable minister of the M E church, on last Sunday evening, announced, at the Disciples church, that he would preach in that place this (Wednesday) evening. He proposes to give his hearers a good old fashioned, Methodist sermon, after the style of about sixty years ago, and invites all to come and hear him. He says there is too much pride in that church, and he cannot go with it. Though well stricken in years, the old gentleman has the voice of a Bonnerges, and the zeal of a new convert.

Sunday was one of those pleasant, bland days, reminding one of the spring of the year "when winter's cruel reign is o'er." But such days this time of the year will be compensated with compound interest by those of different temperature.

NOTICE.—We, the official members, of the A M E Zion Church, of Massillon, Ohio, wish to inform the public that those lottery bills that were got up by J J Walls, of Massillon, are under false pretense, as we knew nothing about them until they were brought before the public. And when we want the aid from the gentleman by his lottery we will notify him.

PASSES.—We are under obligations to Mr M McCullough, superintendent and Mr F R Myers, general ticket agent, for passes on the P Ft W & C R R and the P & C R R.

PERSONAL.—Lieut Wm. Folger has just arrived at home. How long he will remain we are not advised.

James Harsh, for some years a citizen of Finley, son of Geo Harsh, Esq., of this place is about to make Massillon, his native place, his future home.

D F Worcester, many years one of our enterprising citizens, has just arrived here from his present home, at Rochester, N Y. Mr W is in the real estate business at his new home.

FARMERS HOTEL.—Mr George Bechtel, who has had considerable experience as landlord, has opened a new hotel on Erie st., and we understand is liberally patronized both by boarders and travelers. He entirely discards liquor in any form about his premises. Our growing city can afford to increase its hotel accommodations.

SAAL & BRO are to continue the meat market at their stand between the banks, on Erie street, where they will furnish their numerous customers with the best in the market in their line. Our people will sustain them.

JAS H GREENE has just taken charge of the Medina Gazette, and the first number indicates pretty clearly that he will enliven that paper in both original and selected reading. We wish him success.

BOOTS & SHOES.—The finest stock of boots, shoes, slippers, and everything else in that line, in this vicinity, is to be found at Wert & Ball's store on Erie st. These gentlemen always keep on hand articles of the best quality—none of the second or third rate, cheap, shoddy material with which to deceive customers, and take their money for little or no compensation. This honorable system of trading insures, success and increases patronage. Where people know that a good article is to be had there they will go, knowing that it is cheaper to purchase a servicable piece of goods than to invest in lower priced materials which will not last half as long, and is a perpetual source of annoyance to the buyer. In the way of leather wear Wert & Ball's is the place to get the worth of your money. A great many have tried their goods, and know these things are so.

FOUND, a good fur glove, which the owner can have by calling on Jonn H Miller at the Excelsior blacksmith shop.

The builders of the City Hall taking advantage of the pleasant days of late, finished the brick work so that the carpenters can now go on with the roof.

The following is our new years address for 1869. It will do to read all the year; and it there is no rhyme about it, the reader may find some reason connected with it. Wholly figurative, it is not as romantic as many of those annual petitions for five and ten cents.

IN consequence of the few present on last Monday evening the Massillon literary society had no performence, but adjourned till Monday evening the 11th inst.

NEW PENITENTIARY.—A number of the members of the Ohio legislature will visit Massillon, on Friday and Saturday of this week, for the purpose of examining its claims as the best location in the state for the proposed new penitentiary. The committee having charge of the matter propose to entertain the visitors with a complimentary supper, at the American, on Saturday evening, to which the citizens of Massillon are respectfully invited Those who may desire to participate in the festivities of the occasion will please procure tickets at the office of the American on Saturday.

RATIFIED.—The application for extending the boundaries of the city of Massillon was heard before the county commissioners yesterday. They modified the outside lines in some places—particulars not known to us—and so far as their action is concerned settled the boundary question.

The New York Teacher, and American Educational Monthly for January is well up to the times in matters of education. It is a capital number, because the contents are articles on the most important subjects connected with the work of education, and deserves as we have no doubt it receives, a liberal support from the intelligent friends of mental improvement in the state of New York and elsewhere. $1,50 a year. J W Schermerhorn & Co., N Y, publishers.

It is reported by some this morning that a destructive fire took place at Canton last night. The report, we hope, is incorrect, but several persons saw a light in that direction.

PACKARD'S MONTHLY.—This young and live magazine for January comes out in a new and improved form, making 32 instead of 16 pages. The first article is an important one, The flight and capture of Jeff Davis, by E A Pollard, inasmuch as the writer reveals several striking facts which have not generally been known to the public. He thinks Jeff acted cowardly in deserting his army and the confederacy at the time of its greatest danger, and tried to run off from the country. He also says, there are valuable documents in existence, but hidden from the public at present. which go to show that the northern copperheads agreed to aid the south by supplying them with provisions from the granaries of the northwest. The other articles are, The virtue of persistence, What makes woman truly a helpmate to her husband, by Olive Logan; Workshops and sanctum, Wanted—an honest dealer, Judicial corruption in N Y city, Hymn of toil, How newspapers are made, and other good articles closing with five or six pages of lively and spicy editorials. It is a good number, and there are just one hundred young men of Massillon who ought to have it, for it don't cost as much as a week's bill of segars for many puffers,—it is but one dollar a year.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The January No of this excellent farmer's magazine is unusually rich with good and choice matter. Its full table of contents indicates that such a variety fills the 36 pages as will interest all readers, and amply remunerate its hosts of patrons for their investment of $1,50 a year. No agricultural paper in the country excels it in value. Orange Judd & Co., Publishers, N Y.

HERALD OF HEALTH.—Seekers of health will find that the January number of this well established magazine is worthy their attention. And who is not seeking this great prize? Health is desired and longed for by myriads of panting invalids everywhere, many of whom are lured by the thousands of quack pretenders who presume to patch up the dilapidated corporations of countless groaners, who don't know what is the matter with themselves. This Herald of Health will tell such invalids just what is the matter with them, and how to get rid of their ailments in a sensible and rational manner. Miller, Wood & Co., N Y—$2 a year.

ENLARGEMENTS, &c.—Bro Garrison of the Alliance Monitor, has enlarged that paper, so that it now contains 40 columns, a size magnificent in dimensions for a country paper. The citizens of that growing place appreciate the Monitor, for we understand they sustain it liberally. But there is danger of making papers too big, though we hope this don' apply in the case noticed. Mrs M M Brown, a writer of much elegance and experience, is editor of the Monitor.

BROS HUDSON & SON have sold out the Salem Journal to Messrs Vernon & Hutton, a fact heretofore noticed. The new publishers have also enlarged their sheet to 52 columns, quite big enough for safety and utility. Their first number indicates that the publishers are in earnest, and will use all efforts to render the Journal worthy of patronage. As to skill and experience in the art typographic bro Hutton will compare favorably with any printer in this part of the country, so he makes the paper a model of neatness and elegance.

ONWARD.—Carlton, of N Y., has commenced the publication of a magazine, conducted by Capt Mayne Reid, under the above title. The January number is well filled with original matter, of a spicy and lively nature, which will be sure to induce the great public to seek for the February and coming numbers. It is beautifully printed, and the publishers make a free use of extended nonpariel using it for poems, editorial, &c. It is a magazine well calculated to sell.

TILTON'S Journal of Horticulture and Floral Magazine, to which we have often heretofore referred in terms of commendation, comes forth in the January number as beautiful and well filled as ever. Every lover of the useful and graceful cannot avoid admiring and praising this monthly, for its pages teem with the wisdom and experience of practical writers on subjects of which it treats Fruits of the best qualities, vegetables of rare value, and flowers, with cognate subjects, are themes of discussion in its finely printed pages. $3 a year. Tilton & Co. Boston.

EVERY SATURDAY, published by Fields, Osgood & Co, Boston, is a weekly of 32 pages, the matter of which consists of the best selections form foreign magazines. Prominent among these writings are those of Chas Dickens, whose literary labors are known wherever the English language is read and cultivated. Appreciating readers place a high estimate on every Saturday.

NEW STOCK soon coming to the clothing store of Harry Haas, as he has gone west on important business. Mr H is doing a thriving trade, and keeps on hand everything in his line, either ready made, or made to order under control of our old friend Mr G W Bamborn. It is a good place to go for coats, pants, vests, or anything else which goes to make up a gentleman's rig. Further next week.

A New York paper says that it is reported that the City Hall of that city has been turned into a hotel, where impecunious aldermen, councilmen and heads of departments, feed daily at the public expense. So the keeper of the hall and the provietor of the hotel, at a free rental, has his salary increased to $3,750 per annum, beside a slight appropriation of $2000 by way of a New Year's gift. It must be a pleasant thing to be an alderman, councilman, or head of department in the goodly city of New York: where begenerous salaries of the city office holders feast daily at the public expense. What a nice goose to pluck.

Good Health

Is paramount to wealth. If the system is in bad order purge out the vile humors and distempers with Roback's Blood Pills, and get the internal organs performing their regular functions, and once in order, keep them so by the daily use of Roback' Stomach Bitters. Sold by E Kachler.

MARRIED—On the 31st ult., by Rev Wm Lynch, Mr JOHN WALTERS and Miss SARAH E BAUGHMAN.

At Canton, Dec 31st, by Rev S Gorman, Mr CHARLES D MILLARD and SARAH A THORP, all of Massillon.

BUCHU.

[From Dispensatory of the United States.]

DIOSMA CRENATA—BUCHU LEAVES.

Properties.—Their odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, their taste bitterish, and analogous to mint.

Medical properties and Uses.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendancy to the urinary organs.

They are given in complaints of the urinary organs. such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder morbid irritation of the bladder and urethra, disease of the prostate gland, and retention or incontinence of urine, from loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 20 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life: after confinement or labor pains, bed wetting in children.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu, in affections peculiar to females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or retention, painfulness, or suppression of customary evacuations, ulcerated or schirrus state of the uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change of life.

Diseases of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, and dropsical swellings.—This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the watery or calcareous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflamation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflamation of the kidneys ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostate gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, brick dust deposit, and mucus or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms; Indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease wakefulness dimness of vision, pain in the back hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption of the face, pale countenance, universal lassitude of the muscular system &c

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is diuretic and blood purifying and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, excess and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood &, superceding copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as gonorrhoea, gleets of long standing, and syphilitic affections—in these diseases used in connection with Helmbold's Ros W ash

Exuberant Health

Is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy, and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemptions from disease and pain than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a staminal medicine, for it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseum, in the hope of rivaling it but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known or generally used.

Two lightning presses running incessantly (Sundays excepted) the whole year through, barely supply the demands for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth the circulation now being over five millions a year. 288-4w

The Great Pictor Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1869 for distribution gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the western hemisphere will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the mariner, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive national Calendar.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple article and altgrature of more than half the Christian world are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. Send for copies to the central manufactory, at Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the nearest dealer in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bitters are sold in every city, town and village in the United States. 285-4w

Prepare for War.

"In time of peace prepare for war," is the old adage, and there is no sentence in the English language more expressive, not one that is so applicable in innumerable cases. Who is so wise as to know the exact moment that that fell destroyer, disease, will attack him? Then be ye ever prepared, have the Roback's Blood Pills Stomach Bitters and Blood Pur

[From the Atlantic Monthly for January.]

After Election.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

The day's sharp strife is ended now,
Our work is done, God knoweth how!
As on the thronged, unrestful town
The patience of the moon looks down,
I wait to hear, beside the wire,
The voices of its tongues of fire.

Slow, doubtful, faint, they seem at first:
Be strong, my heart, to know the worst!
Hark!—there the Alleghanies spoke;
That sound from lake and prairie broke!
That sunset-gun of triumph rent
The silence of a continent!

That signal from Nebraska sprung,
This, from Nevada's mountain tongue!
Is that thy answer, strong and free,
O loyal heart of Tennessee?
What strange, glad voice is that which calls
From Wagner's grave and Sumter's walls?

From Mississippi's fountain-head
A sound as of the bison's tread!
There rustled freedom's Charter Oak!
In that wild burst the Ozarks spoke!
Cheer answers cheer from rise to set
Of sun. We have a country yet!

The praise, O God, be thine alone!
Thou givest not for bread a stone;
Thou hast not led us through the night
To blind us with returning light;
Not through the furnace have we passed,
To perish at its mouth at last.

O night of peace, thy flight restrain!
November's moon be slow to wane!
Shine on the freedman's cabin floor,
On brows of prayer a blessing pour;
And give, with full assurance blest,
The weary heart of Freedom rest!

Who Invented the Modern Plow.

How far away in the lapse of ages is the period when the plow was first used to tear up and abrade the soil for the reception of the seed there are no certain means of knowing, but traditions and the pictured records of the oldest nations tell of its use. Made undoubtedly at first of the forked branching portion of the tree, it underwent only trifling changes in form and structure for many ages; the principal of these made at some unknown period, being the curvature given to the digging portion, the first approach to the modern mold-board, and the iron point, the rude prototype of the plow share of to day. One of the first improvements upon the primitive plow thus formed was the addition of the coltor, a thin blade extending downward from the beam and serving to divide the soil in advance of the digging portion proper, and facilitating thereby the forward movement of the latter. In this form the implement was that was known as the Rotterdam plow, and from this name it is inferred that the sturdy Hollanders had something to do with the first radical changes in the make of the primitive apparatus.

About a hundred and thirty years since a Scotchman invented the cast iron moldboard, which was a marked improvement on the wooden one, and after this the plow manufacturers and the plow-holders seem to have remained content for half a century, when an English inventor gave a new start to to their ideas of progress by bringing out a plow with a cast-iron share. Sixty years after this an American produced a plow having a cast iron land slide and mold board, and a wrought iron or steel share.

Thus at long intervals the different parts of the modern plow were evolved in rude shape and design, but so slowly did the new ideas make progress that it is within the memory of men still living when the old "bull plow," so called from its blunt configuration, formed mostly of wood and wrought iron, was in almost universal use. It yet remained to so combine the crude elements of the implement that its capabilities should become known to the manufacturer, and be made available to the tiller of the soil. This task, and a thankless one it proved, was accomplished by Jethro Wood, a Quaker farmer of New York, who in 1814 took out a United States patent for a plow which embraced most of the vital points essential in the modern implements. These were the suiting of the curvature of the mold board to the resistance offered in turning the furrow, thereby increasing the draught; the connection of the cast iron mold board with the beam by means of a cast iron standard; the attachment of a cast iron share to the upper and forward surface of the mold board, and also certain means of fastening the plow-handles to the mold board, and the latter to the land slide, without the use of bolts. These improvements not only greatly increased the value of the plow as an implement of labor but also greatly cheapened its production. Not withstanding this, however, it was long difficult to overcome the prejudices of the farmers against the "potmetal plow," and when this at last was done the manufacturers stepped into the field, took advantage of the then defective condition of the patent laws, and inch by inch and year after year fought the inventor out of his rights, so that he died financially ruined, after years of vain and constant struggling, during which his invention was found in the furrows of every farm throughout the land. His descendants fared no better, although the patent was once extended, for it has been shown that from the commencement of the efforts of Jethro Wood to improve the plow only about five hundred dollars were ever received by him or his from his great invention, while in these self same efforts he spent the fortune he had originally possessed.

There seems a sad parallel between the story of Samuel Crompton, living a life of poverty while his improvements in spinning machinery, whirred in all the cotton factories of England, and the bitter trials of Jethro Wood, while all the broad fields of his native land owned the benefits conferred by his genius. Yet the world moves onward, and in these latter times, to some degree at least, a kindlier atmosphere surrounds the energetic inventor. Manufacturers as a general rule find it more to their interest to pay for the protection afforded by a patent than to break it down, and, more than all, the moral sense of the community grows more and more alive to the truth that the inventor, like every other laborer in the field of human progress, is worthy of his hire.—American Artisan.

Dear Sir:—For three weeks past I have been using your Plantation Bitters. For more than two months past I have been suffering from what my doctor said was nervous prostration, being unable to endure hardly any physical or mental labor without great fatigue. But I had not used the Bitters a week before I was conscious of their benefitting me as nothing else had, and I have continued to gain very rapidly since, till now I am able to be about my household duties. To all who are afflicted with general debility I can testify from experience that the bitters are invaluable. Yours, Truly, Margaret B Stone.

A captain who had a sound sleeping mate, caught an Irish boy in the middle watch frying some pork he had stolen from the ship's stores, to whom the captain called out, 'You lubber you. I'll have none of that.' 'Faith, captain, I've none for ye,' replied the lad.

An Irishman who was troubled with the toothache, determined to have an old offender extracted; but, there being no dentist near, he resolved to do the job himself; whereupon he filled the excavation with powder, but being afraid to touch it off, he put a slow match to it, and ran to get out of the way.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED AGENTS.—$75 to $200 per month everywhere, male and female, to introduce the Genuine Improved Common Sense Family Sewing Machine. This machine will hem, stitch, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1,000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the elastic lock stitch. Every second stitch can be cut and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address Secomb & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. or Boston Mass.

CAUTION.—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.
